Dear She Tells Sea Tales fans and Girls' Boat Project supporters,

We have officially decided to cancel the March 14th She Tells Sea Tales event. As you are well aware, we are navigating the impacts of Coronavirus on our community and it seems prudent to cancel this gathering.

The good news is that you can still get a taste of She Tells Sea Tales! We invite you to listen to KPTZ 91.9 this Friday, March 13th from 3:30-4:30 PM for a special reading from a few of our 2020 She Tells Sea Tales scheduled readers.

And if that wasn't enough you can also access some of your favorite past readers (or years you missed) on the KPTZ website at <https://kptz.org/podcasts/passages-sea-tales/> Thank you, KPTZ!

We hope that you will consider donating the cost of your ticket. In the words of one of this year's girls, "People should support the Girls' Boat Project because it is important to learn woodworking and it is fun to be with so many capable women in our community." This powerful program still needs your support.

If you would like a refund, reply to this email by March 17th. If we don't hear from you by then we will assume that you are donating. If you would like to make an additional donation please visit: nwmaritime.org/shetells

Best practices reminders

- Stay home if you are sick.
- Wash your hands frequently with soap and water for 20 seconds or with a hand sanitizer if soap and water are not available.
- Cover your coughs and sneezes with a tissue, or cough and sneeze into your upper sleeve. Dispose of tissues in no-touch trash receptacles.
- Wash your hands or use a hand sanitizer after coughing, sneezing, or blowing your nose.

Thank you for continuing to support the Northwest Maritime Center and the Girls' Boat Project .
